

About Topsham

Topsham is located on the edge of the Exe Estuary, about 4 miles from the centre of Exeter. Once a town in its own right, it is now part of Exeter but still retains its individual identity and character.

Topsham is home to some of the most beautiful buildings in Devon and has avoided the fate of so many small towns by supporting a huge wealth of individual, locally owned businesses who provide a unique experience for both shoppers and business. The town has pretty much everything you could want, from the huge range of local produce and gifts at Dart's Farm to shops and restaurants offering high quality and personal service.
